

Program Corsage Winter Meeting 2007

Contingencies of genomics - finding roads into the future

Date: Thursday December 13th 2007

Venue: De Witte Vosch, Utrecht, the Netherlands

9:00-9:30	Registration and coffee
9:30-9:40	Opening by organizing committee
9:40-10:20	Opening lecture by prof.dr. Abraham (Bram) Brouwer, Director of the Ecogenomics Consortium
10:20-10:30	Coffee break
10:30-12:15	New dilemmas	Large and small production systems
parallel sessions	Rixt Komduur - The role of genes in discussions about overweight Roeland Huijgen - Agreement in the Netherlands to minimize the consequences for life and disability insurance of diagnosing Familial Hypercholesterolemia Arno Müller - Ethical aspects of the therapeutical application of gene technology in sports	Rens Vandeberg - Interactive learning in emerging technologies Bart Penders - Norms and politics in contemporary 'Big Nutrition' Daniel Puente Rodríguez - Engaging genomics and bio-fuels with sustainable developments
12:15-13:10	Lunch
13:10-14:20	Interactive research (1)	Genetic ownership (1)
parallel sessions	Wouter Boon - Demand articulation in emerging pharmaceutical technologies Conor Douglas - Patient participation in pharmacogenetics research	Jerzy Koopman - Navigating between legal regimes Jessica Wright - Privacy and the use of genetic databases
14:20-14:35	Tea break
14:35-15:45	Interactive research (2)	Genetic ownership (2)
parallel sessions	Maud Radstake - A is for agenda: redefining ELSA's problem Roel Nahuis - User producer interaction in context	Eric Vermeulen - Consent regimes for research with 'leftover human tissue' Bram de Jonge - The why, how and what of benefit-sharing
15:45-16:00	Tea break
16:00-17:00	Panel discussion Dr. Ellen Moors (chair) is assistant professor in innovation studies Marjan Slob is an independent writer and journalist Prof. Huub Schellekens is a specialist in medical applications of gene technology Dr. Luc Rietveld is project development manager at the NGI
17:00-17:15	Closing by organizing committee; short round of evaluation
17:15- ...	Drinks
